

Short term internship program at IIT Hyderabad for Japanese students.

IITH has a very unique collaboration with Japanese universities and industries. In order to strengthen and encourage the research collaboration between IITH and Japanese Universities, Indian Institute of Technology Hyderabad offering under graduate Japanese students for short term internship program. Indian Institute of Technology Hyderabad welcomes Japanese students for a new journey to study, learning and explore. Interested under graduate Japanese students of recognized Institute/University are invited to apply for the short term internship program at IIT Hyderabad for a period of 08(eight) weeks probably in the middle of May 2020 to middle of July 2020. The interested students for this short term internship program should identify the professors of IITH in advance before applying.

Duration:

Summer Internship: Mid-May to Mid-July.

*(Period is tentative and may change according to the schedule availability of Guide or Supervisor of IITH)

Eligibility:

3rd or 4th year under graduate Japanese students who will be in continuing his/her bachelor's program after the internship period.

How to Get Start!

Before begin please make sure of the following points:

Japanese students need electronic copies of the following supporting documents in order to proceed with the application and to submit the google form.

- Academic transcript/s.
- Supporting documents for professional experiences (if any), Research Publications (if any).
- Any other supporting documents for faculty specific requirements and restrictions (if applicable).

Application Procedure

Instructions for submission of application:

Please read instructions carefully. It is encouraged to follow this guidelines while filling of application and Google form in order to avoid errors in submission.

- Application form can be downloaded at the following link: APPLICATION FORM for Short term Internship at IITH.
- Fill all columns of the application carefully.
- Identify a faculty supervisor you are interested to work with in IITH. To identify departments and the supervisor please visit our website- <https://www.iith.ac.in/>
- Approach your faculty advisor or International affairs office of your University and get his/her endorsement/certification in the application form.
- fill the Google form provided through the link: <https://forms.gle/toLPyq6UvD4fAM6p8>
- Submit the Google form with scan filled application and required documents(as prescribed)

Please note that required documents must be attached while submitting the application through Google form. Google form submitted without required documents will not be accepted.

Tuition fees and other expenditures

- Tuition fee is exempted for Japanese students.
- Selected student will be provided hostel accommodation in IITH campus only.
- Students need to take care of all other expenditure like Round Air fare, Travel insurance, Medical insurance etc.,

Last date of Submission application through Google Form.

- 31st January 2020.

Selection Procedure

- Selection will be based on the student's qualification, grades and Skype interview (if required) performance.

Please reach us for any Clarifications.

Office of International and Alumni Relations

Room No-411, Block-A, IIT Hyderabad. Kandi, Sangareddy.
Telangana, India.

Contact No: +91 9441765161

Email: office_iar@iith.ac.in

Dean (International and Alumni Relations)

Room no-209, Block-A, IIT Hyderabad.
Kandi, Sangareddy. Telangana, India.

Email: dean.iar@iith.ac.in